Still More Villainy

BRATTLEBORO Vt June 18—To-day's developments only confirm previous reports of the utter failure of the First National bank and possibly future developments may add to the liabilities which are now placed at $450 48. The assets consist of about $18 000 in notes many known to be fraudulent government bonds Waite's property is under attachment and variously estimated to be worth from $30 000 to $50 000 Telegrams were received to-day showing additional fraudulent transactions in New York. Three hundred shares of bank stock had been placed in the Fourth National bank at New York as collateral on which Waite had received about $15 000 This stock may have belonged to Waite it being understood that he was a large share holder but it may turn out to be otherwise

The Kentucky Democratic Convention

LEXINGTON June 17—The democratic state convention met to-day About 600 delegates were present Gen L Disha, was elected chairman and B Polk Johnson secretary While waiting for reports of committees speeches were made by Col. Breckinridge ~~Henry Watterson Gen C M Clay and oth~~ers The name of Tilden was always received with long and loud cheers but when Judge Lindsay alluded to Horatio Seymour there was the wildest enthusiasm The cheering was continued for several minutes All of the speakers avowed a strong preference for Tilden A resolution directing the state delegation at Cincinnati to vote as a unit created a very heated debate and occupied the time of the convention up to the hour of taking recess until 8 o'clock

On reassembling a resolution instructing delegates to vote as a unit in the national convention, was withdrawn This is regarded as a damper on the Tilden men, although a majority of the delegates are for Tilden The delegates for the state at large are Henry Watterson, Jno W Stevenson Gen Wm Preston and Judge W Lindsay

Garfield as one who had always done his duty in the war, and who was therefore entitled to the highest civic honors that could be given him Gen Garfield then rose and was received with enthusiastic applause He said that he knew nothing more difficult than for a man to speak of such compliments as had been paid him without embarrassment, but there was something in the character of soldierhood which gives freedom of speech and makes one feel and think without embarrassment Men who were present, he said had been so tried in the war that their sympathies ran out to each other He did not feel at this time like indulging in talk on politics. He complimented highly the conduct of volunteers of the army as well as regulars and said he never felt the jealousy of regulars which some people felt Both armies had done their full duty and he rejoiced in the conduct of the regulars as he did that of the volunteers The war had resulted in one army and one nationality Referring to the motives which actuated soldiers of both the northern and southern armies during the rebellion he said that both sides believed that they were right. In regard to the conduct of our foes he believed many of them had now become the noblest of our friends, and that the country was now in spirit as it was in name—one people with one flag and one destiny

PRELIMINARY TALK

Democratic Gathering at Cincinnati

Tilden Said to be Out of the Fight—Field's Chances Brightening—Seymour Will Play a Strong Hand

Part of the Oregon Delegation on Hand.

CHICAGO June 18—The Times thus summarizes its political news Congressman Morrison is at St Louis interviewing delegates from the southwest and endeavoring to impress them with a sense of his availability Speaker Randall intends to make himself conspicuous in the convention in the hope that if lightning shall strike in Cincinnati as it did in Chicago he will receive the benefit of the shock The editor of a democratic newspaper at Oswego N Y is going to Cincinnati to work up a boom for George B McClellan of New Jersey Delegates wire pullers and lookers on are arriving at Cincinnati in large numbers. It was the general impression last evening that Tilden was practically out of the race Three carloads of New England delegates to the convention left Boston yesterday Nearly all opposed to Tilden and those who express preference is at all pronounced favor Bayard John Kelly just before his departure from New York said that he did not believe Tilden would be nominated, that Tammany had no especial favorite but that it would put up a third ticket in the event of Tilden's nomination

The Situation at Cincinnati

CINCINNATI June 18—To-day the first lively indications of the near approach of the Democratic National Convention have been apparent There are probably one hundred scattering delegates wire pullers and leading politicians on hand ready to get to work One of the surest theories demonstrated thus early in the day is that Tilden is out of the fight. The feeling that he cannot be elected is expressed by nine tenths of the people who have arrived Rumors here to-night are that Judge Hoadley has a letter in his possession from Tilden withdrawing from the fight This however is but rumor L A Washington told a correspondent to-night that he was informed by one of Tilden's warmest friends that he Tilden's people do not count on more than 230 votes on first ballot If this is all he can count he might as well give up before the convention meets The arrivals to-day have been of importance Among the first was Samuel B Smith Justice Field's former law partner He is virtually the manager of the Field boom and it is said has a "barl" to back him. Certain it is that Mr Smith's arrival has a wonderful effect on delegates already here

Col W H Effinger delegate at large from Oregon, says that his delegation stands five for Field and one for Tilden He thinks Field the only democrat who can carry Oregon

J B. Metcalf, of the California delegation came on with Effinger and reports his delegation solid for Field Metcalf says that California will vote against Garfield no matter whom the democrats may nominate. Blaine could not have been deprived of the state vote He reports Thurman very popular with the working people

Smith said to-day that he expected Field to get 160 votes on the first ballot which would include all the Pacific delegates but one some from Kansas Arkansas and Missouri 16 from Alabama 27 from Georgia and a part from the Maine Massachusetts and Michigan delegations

The Second Place—Iowa's Vote

WASHINGTON June 18—Democrats declare that particular attention will be paid to the second place on the ticket, Col. Fenn of Iowa passed through Chicago yesterday bound for the convention He thinks the delegation from his state will give Tilden a complimentary vote but that Seymour is the favorite

Seymour's Backers.

CHICAGO June 18—The Seymour club will go to Cincinnati with white hats blue badges and gold fringe

THE REPUBLICAN VERSION.

Minority Report of the Senate Exodus Committee—The Blacks Driven from the South by Cruelty and Injustice.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON June 17—Windom presented in the senate yesterday the views of the minority of the exodus committee appointed to investigate the causes which led to the emigration of negroes from southern to northern states The minority assert that they found no evidence whatever tending to sustain the charge that the republican party or any of its leaders have been instrumental in encouraging the exodus of the blacks from the south to the north With reference to aid societies encouraging and aiding this emigration the minority found that their purposes were purely charitable and had no connection whatever with any political movements. The minority then proceed ed to a very exhaustive review of the evidence of some of the principal colored witnesses examined by the committee, nearly all of which witnesses the minority say attributed the cause of the exodus to a feeling of insecurity for life and property denial of their political rights as citizens a long continued persecution for political reasons a system of cheating by landlords and storekeepers which rendered it impossible for them to make a living no matter how hard they might work the inadequacy of school advantages and fear that they would be eventually reduced to a system of peonage even worse than slavery itself. As to the future of the exodus the minority refer to the testimony of many witnesses who declared that it has only begun and that what we have seen in the past is nothing compared to what is to come unless there shall be a radical change on the part of the democrats in the south There is but one remedy for the exodus and that is fair treatment for the negroes If northern democrats would check the threatened inundation of black labor into their states, they must recognize the facts which have produced the exodus and unite with us in removing its causes The report is signed by Senators Windom and Blair the two republican members of the committee

FITZ JOHN PORTER AGAIN

Letter from him to the Fifth Army Corps in Session at Burlington Vt

Fifth Army Corps Election

BURLINGTON Vt. June 18—The fifth army corps in session here to-day elected the following officers President Gen Horatio G Wright vice presidents first corps Gen John C Robinson second Gen as B Colt third Col W A Keller fifth Corps Gen Stewart Tovey sixth Gen Jas H Walker ninth Gen W K Libby twelfth Gen Wm Cogswell cavalry Gen Wm Wells treasurer Gen M T McMahon recording secretary Col Horatio C King Corresponding secretary Gen George H Sharp

A letter was received from Fitz John Porter addressed to Gen McMahon and members of the fifth army corps whose devotion and faith in his innocence, Porter says have been as lamps to my path in dark hours of adversity Referring to the decision of the first court martial in 1863 he asserts that it was an astonishment alike to able jurists watching the trial and to such military men now dead as Reynolds Sumner Hooker Sedgwick Thomas Anderson Griffin Barnes Heintzelman Wadsworth and Sykes who remained his firm friends and associates through life General Sykes on his death bed after hearing Logan's military report in the case said "I hope God in His infinite goodness will vouchsafe to Porter the justice he deserves. He is an innocent man" He says that it was intimated to him during his first trial and has since been asserted to him that there existed on the part of the government fear that the control of the army of the Potomac would pass ~~out of the hands of the administration~~ and the necessity arose of demonstrating the power of the government and re establishing discipline by striking down some one with high rank and influence It was my misfortune to be selected as the victim He recapitulates his story of appeal for the reopening of his case years ago.

The declaration of General Grant that he not only ought to have the rehearing but every member of the court which sentenced him should be glad to have the opportunity to join in the appeal the result of the examination by the board appointed in 1878 composed of Generals Schofield Terry and Getty whom he had reason to believe were intensely prejudiced against him when they entered upon their work and how this board after the most thorough and searching examination of witnesses that could be brought before it reported with entire unanimity and without doubts that their minds that his intelligent conduct saved the union army from defeat also that not one American among the gallant soldiers of that bloody fight was less deserving of condemnation than he was. Committees of both senate and house recommended the passage of bills introduced to carry out the board's recommendation but opposition organized for personal and political motive to resist all action leading to his complete vindication by forcing the matter into the political arena and striving to unite a political party on either side has arrested its progress and at the solicitation of my friends of both political parties further consideration by congress is delayed till the next session. A speech was adopted and delivered in the senate presenting only the views of the prosecution and not presenting the facts. At the instigation of him who delivered it the speech is to be circulated as a campaign document and array organization of which many of you are members have been called upon, though in violation of their regulations to aid in its circulation while arrangements are being made to furnish state central committees of one party with a speech arranged for their speakers to use in the coming political campaign He says, in conclusion that sustained by hosts of friends and by a never failing faith that a just and generous people will not permit his wrongs to go unredressed he will go on to the end obtaining justification from the government, which owes to him, on leaving it if God wills a legacy for his children to demand and obtain

The corps unanimously adopted a resolution asking congress to consider the matter of General Fitz John Porter without any bias and purely as a matter of justice.

JUNIUS BRUTUS THANKS THE PEOPLE—THE LESSONS OF DEFEAT

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I will no doubt be deemed proper public acknowledgement of my gratitude to the people of Oregon proper in view of the event culminating in the election of the 7th of June My professional existence hung on the result upon my appeal against the usurpation and tyranny of the supreme court I staked my whole future in Oregon upon the just judgment of the people of my adopted state. They have spoken and no man can doubt that they have said to me remain with us pursue your profession and in the pulpit behalf expose unjust decisions and your pleasure in a free press A correct analysis of the vote shows this in the clearest light the

Kelly behind Whitaker 565

Congressional vote 1880 approximated as to counties by vote in 1878 and congressional vote 1878 33 [illegible] increase 3000

Increased vote 3000 by immigration estimated 6000 not voting 3000 Three counties not heard from will be about a set off on judicial vote but increasing Whitaker's vote

The vote actually cast reverses that majority and gives about two thousand five hundred against the late chief justice and his associate in favor of boys of great worth and ability it is true but modest and retiring and therefore not generally known And further, the vote of this year is very little more than it was two years ago yet every one knows that our immigration has been at least 30 000 more likely 40 000 in that period which in the usual ratio of 5 to 1 would make an increase of 5000 voters Allowing the deduction of 3000 actual voters over 1878 and we have at the very lowest estimate 3000 refusing to go to the polls. Since there was the utmost harmony in the republican ranks and this a presidential year it will not be denied that they had their usual turn out but as the democrats had serious disaffection in their ranks from various sources it is fair to assume that the bulk of those 3500 belonged to that party and presumably remained away because they could not endorse some of the chief nominees and would not go against them Hence adding these to the 2500 we have a majority of 5500 of the true people of Oregon who refused to bow the knee to Baal who repudiated Governor Thayer's administration and who condemned the usurpation and tyranny of the most odious and unscrupulous ring in the annals of Oregon These figures then being approximately correct the extraordinary majority of over 2000—itself beyond the hopes of the most sanguine republican—sink into insignificance in comparison with the grander undeclared will indicated by solid majority which overwhelms a real democratic majority of perhaps 1800

Many causes and influences doubtless contributed to this result but it cannot be truly denied that the absorbing and only living issue was upon the deeds of the judiciary It was the burden of the press and was on the tongues and in the heart of every person in Oregon Inasmuch as my professional existence was involved and in peril for my espousal of the liberties of the citizen against usurpation and the tyranny of the courts I am profoundly thankful to the people for the result and I trust my career will never cause them to regret that they have protected their now adopted son For this emphatic approval I am grateful to all to the republican party for their hearty sympathy in behalf of the common rights of the citizen to the press especially to the Douglas Independent THE OREGONIAN and the Mercury for their timely espousal to the independent voters of the state to the resolute Jeffersonian democrats who voted against these enemies of liberty to those who scratched, and even to those sullen ones who like Achilles of old retired to their tents to the number of 3000 and in an especial manner to Sol Abraham and his mule. And, although for the past eight months at unscrupulous ring embracing the executive and judicial departments have boasted that they would "starve me out" I recognize in this remarkable vote the popular assurance that their efforts will be futile

But while thanking the people on my own account, permit me also to congratulate them that when they were thus vindicating common right in my person they were erecting in their own behalf permanent monuments of liberty and prosperity They have by this crushing rebuke of usurpers and tyrants made in our grand young commonwealth living realities of a free press an independent bar pure courts and resulting true government. They have restored our credit, vindicated justice in behalf of wronged and helpless suitors, established our commercial honor among the nations and caused the people to breathe easier in the consciousness that hereafter every right of even the humblest citizen will be regulated by the sole inquiry "what is the law?" No court will ever hereafter dare make a decision which cannot, with reason be defended and this constitutes the highest, and even the sole, guaranty to every citizen of protection for his private rights

To democrats I would say that this is not defeat of our party it is only a victory of the people and though the battlefield is strewn with the carcasses of pigmy leaders its sole effect will be to purify and strengthen the party and insure that large majority in the next election to which its numbers entitle it It is a declaration to the world that party labels are not sufficient with true democrats and this gives assurance to the people that democracy is worthy of power It teaches too that hereafter membership in the party will be a source of mutual advancement, and shall not be the signal of destruction by small yet unscrupulous tricksters and that all persons who seek democratic favor must do so by generous rivalry and not by the resort of killing [illegible] down others through rings and defamation In conclusion I will say to the numerous friends acquaintance and strangers in Oregon and Washington who have written to thank me in my action in behalf of the liberties of the citizen and to congratulate me on the result that circumstances simply put me in the front of a battle in which the victory is owed to thousands and the credit due not to me but to the [illegible] of [illegible] May no ex vertus et probabil [illegible], object I claim, a par in the election being accomplished I shall now retire to the exclusive practice of the law believing that intelligent democrats will not blame me for my fight in self defense for sheer existence

PORTLAND, June 15 1880 SIDNEY DELL

P S—I will add that many persons think I have some control over the Mercury perhaps because for a month or so after its removal to Portland it advocated my cause But in truth I have not a particle of control over it. On the contrary for six or seven weeks before the election articles offered by me have been almost uniformly rejected and the policy of the paper in the campaign has been in direct opposition to my expressed wishes in almost every particular I say this because the editor, for reasons sufficient perhaps to himself has attacked persons in many instances whom I would not have hurt for any consideration S D

KALLOCH'S FLOCK

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

SAN FRANCISCO June 17—At a meeting of the Metropolitan Baptist church Rev I S Kalloch pastor last evening a preamble and resolutions were adopted strongly endorsing Kalloch The resolutions say that members of the church had heard all the charges that had been made against the pastor but his pure and exemplary life has proven them false that his labors in behalf of his church and its prosperity under his care have earned for him the gratitude of every member of the congregation The last resolution reads

Resolved That whatever civil court or ecclesiastical council may decree we shall regard them in the light of malignant persecutions which can only bind us more closely to him and cause us to stand more firmly by him until the accusations in proper form coming from proper and unprejudiced sources affecting his moral and ministerial character are presented to us in a proper manner in which case we hold ourselves ready to give him as we are bound to give every member of the church a fair hearing and impartial trial but in respect to this we also give notice that neither this church nor any member of it can be used for the purpose of creating any sentiment or unfavorable impression that may prejudice him or his son our beloved brother in any civil cases which may affect their reputation their liberty or their life.

THE INCREASE OF CRIME.

The increase of crime and criminals has been noticed and commented upon by moralists of this country, and the causes that lead to such a state of affairs has been more speculated upon than any other politico-social question. That the increase has been such as to deserve not only comment but grave apprehension on the part of law-abiding citizens as to how to check it not arrest this growing evil. The causes as the source of every evil, are numerous and deep rooted. They are not of recent or abnormal growth. They have taken a deeper hold on the body politic on account of their seemingly innocent incipiency. They are to be found in our social system, in our business relations, in our amusements, in our studies, in fact they permeate our every action. They arise from the treatment that greater and noted criminals receive at the hands of justice, from the flagrant and flippant manner in which we look on the plunderer of the state, from the winking at smaller offenses, from the martyrdom placed on severe punishment, from inordinate desire for gain, from misdirected ambition, from unrealized hopes, and from general morbidity produced by these on our social life. The workings of these causes begin in early life, and are among the first impressions of childhood, and in youth and early manhood and womanhood are a part of the philosophy and general belief of the whole body.

The result of this early training and belief is observed on every hand in the increase of crime, criminals, pauperism and vagabondism. This is not conficed to one section of the country, but extends over the whole. In the eastern portion it has on several occasions manifested itself in long and continued setting the law at defiance and revolting crimes. In the west its fruit has been an univeral lawlessness. On the Pacific coast it resulted in unrestrained hoodlumism, not hesitating with the most fiendish outrages. The northwest coast has not been exempt from its blighting influence as over-crowded penitentiaries attest. Oregon has been particularly accursed with its general growth. Our jails are full, our penitentiary crowded. Criminals escape their just punishment. Many of the smaller offenses are unpunished. The punishment has become such a burden that the taxpayers sigh for relief from this constant drain on their pockets. Such in brief are the causes and the result of the fungus of crime, and thinking men naturally, at this time before the meeting of the legislature, seek the remedy for this depravity. While the legislature can do much to check it, any legislation must be powerless to completely cure the defect. A radical change in our social system is necessary. One that will excuse no crime nor criminal, no matter how great or how small, that will teach the rising generation that labor is the only sure method of obtaining an honorable livelihood, that will eradicate the idea that trickery is more certain of reward than patient toil, that will wipe out the inordinate desire for gain and power by directing those ambitions to steadier and more certain happiness. However, the legislature can do much toward stopping the tide, by devising a more summary method of punishment for the lesser offenses, not making the punishment greater, but certain in every case. It has also been suggested that the jurisdiction of county courts in the smaller counties be enlarged so as to give them cognizance of a number of crimes now indictable by the grand jury. The subject is fraught with interest and one that our legislators should closely study.

The Chicago Tribune which opposed the nomination of Gen. Grant with as much effect as any other journal in the country says now: "Honor the brave. Let no word of disparagement fall upon that successful military chieftain who, led away by misguided friends, aspired to honors which were denied to Washington and Jefferson. The failure to obtain those honors leaves him where he was before,—high in the esteem of the American people and destined to have a lasting claim upon their gratitude. In his honorable retirement he will not be less but more beloved than if he had violated one of the most cherished traditions of the republic."

Mr. Dell's concluding letter on the supreme court is given to-day. We were afraid that he would claim the credit of the recent republican victory, and so he attempts, but his own figures, which are not exactly correct, don't bear him out in this claim, inasmuch as they show that Col. Kelly, whom he most bitterly opposed, received more votes by over 700 than did Whiteaker, whom he did not oppose at all.

Who will be the Cincinnatus? That's the question.—Tackamas Democrat.

Old Nes is in training for it. If we can believe the plow stories he occasionally sends to his organ—the Oregonian.—Standard

Nesmith is more noted for his harrowing the editor of the Standard than for his plowing in THE OREGONIAN.

A Vassar girl who has been studying spelling reform, has discovered that Phthologuyrrh should be pronounced Turner. If you don't believe it analize the word for yourself. Phth, as in phthisis, is T; olo, as in colonel, is ur; gu, as in gnat, is n; yrrh, as in myrrh, is er.

The democracy during the past ten days have been jolly over what they hoped would prove to be the irreconcilable differences of the republicans. Now they are beginning to reflect that in twelve days more there will be a heap of trouble in Cincinnati for somebody.

The Boston Herald tells the story of an enthusiastic veteran, who, upon getting his pension papers entitling him to $1600 arrears, remarked as he left the city hall: "By George, if I could meet the dastardly rebel that shot me, I would treat him."

Should the republican convention to-day, as we have every reason to believe it will, present a ticket of good names, free from the suspicion of jobs or the manipulation of tricksters, the people will repeat the lesson taught the democracy on the 7th.

The city will be fortunate if it secures the services of one as honest, able and efficient as Mr. Simon, to serve as councilman from the second ward, he having declined a renomination, which would have been equivalent to an election.

The man who can claim that the returns of election last week shows that there is a democratic majority in Oregon of 1500 would have no trouble in extracting blood from a turnip or rays of light from a cucumber.

Astorian: The body of another drowned man was washed ashore at Fort Stevens yesterday just as the tug was leaving. Dr. Baker informs us it had the appearance of having been in the water but a short time. On one arm was stamped three letters. A coroner will be sent for the body awaiting an inquest when the steamer left.

On last Monday, Marlow Dimmick, foreman on the construction of the railroad track to the gravel bar, at Independence, met with a severe accident by dropping a heavy rail on the great toe of his right foot, nearly crushing the toe from the foot, and unfitting Mr. Dimmick from active service for some time.

The people of Sandy and vicinity will celebrate the Declaration of Independence at Cedar Creek, near Mr. Reveune's, on July 3, 1880. Mr. Wm. Bond, of Powell's Valley, will read the Declaration of Independence, and Mr. Hiram Straight, of Damascus will deliver the oration.

DRY GOODS, CLOTHING.

In France, England, Germany, and in the Eastern States, armies of White people of both sexes are employed in designing, coloring, measuring, dressing, cutting, sewing, etc., etc., and in the States of California and Oregon most all of this kind of labor is performed by Chinamen; but I make it my business to keep my store clear from this China made trash. Workingmen of this city and all over Oregon, to YOU I make it known, that there is not a single dollar's worth of Goods in my Store that have ever been handled by a Chinaman; and I wish it publicly understood, without FEAR or FAVOR, that I shall at all times stock my Store with only such Goods as are made by WHITE labor, and I ask your patronage.

A FOREIGNER SPEAKS.

PORTLAND June 18 1880

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

How is it in regard to a 4th of July celebration in our city? If our native American citizens are lacking in patriotism and gratitude by failing to celebrate the birthday of our liberties I would suggest to our foreign born citizens to turn out en masse to refute the insult propagated by Colonel Sherman san Francisco patriot, etc and to demonstrate that we still cherish the same love for our adopted country as those foreigners who have bled and died on the battle fields to defend and maintain the union and independence of this glorious republic A FOREIGNER

IT IS A LITTLE TROUBLE

To examine the pamphlet wrapped around each bottle of the true Murray & Lanman s Florida Water so as to find the words Lanman & Kemp New York which are water marked or stamped in pale letters on every page but it is better to take this small amount of bother rather than to be imposed upon by a worthless counterfeit. Every leaf of the pamphlet around the genuine has the words in it which though pale and faint can be easily seen when held up to the light and no Florida Water is genuine that does not have this test mark

THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

The business of the past week has been heavier and more of it than for some weeks preceding. The market has quite recovered from the disturbing influence of the late elections and exhibit more than average activity. The deeds recorded during the past week show the following dealings: In city property 17, in East Portland 11, in county and suburban cemetery lots 2, making a total of 39 transactions with aggregate consideration of 44,-532.

Building is actively proceeding and promises unusually brisk as numerous extensive blocks as well as private houses will shortly be under way. Chief of the former are a very handsome five story brick to be erected for the use of the O. R. & N. Co. on block No. 10, Couch's addition, corner A and First, and a four story and basement brick, hotel and railroad depot to be built for the Oregonian Railway Co. on block 112, Front street, between Columbia and Clay. At no time has the confidence of Portland citizens in its future been more strikingly exhibited either as it regards its real estate values or improvements than at present.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL
CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.

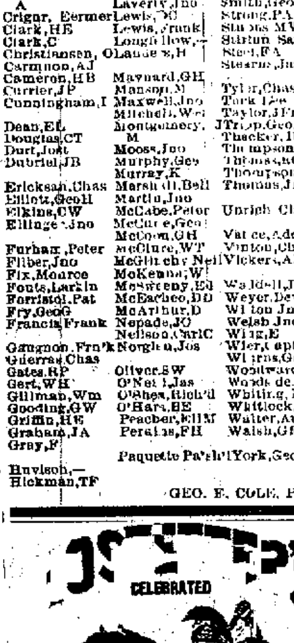
GEO. F. COLE, P. M.



Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this priceless invigorant speedily initiates and carries to a successful conclusion. Digestion is restored and sustenance afforded to each life-sustaining organ by the Bitters, which is inoffensive even to the feminine palate, vegetable in composition, and thoroughly safe. For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

King of the Blood.

Cures all Scrofulous affections and disorders resulting from Impurity of the blood. It is needless to specify all, as the sufferer can usually perceive their cause; but Salt Rheum, Pimples, Ulcers, Tumors, Goitre, Swellings, &c., are the most common, as well as many affections of the Heart, Head, Liver and Stomach.

SCROFULA.

Wonderful Cure of Blindness.

D. RANSOM, SON & Co.: For the benefit of all troubled with Scrofula or Impure Blood in their systems, I hereby recommend King of the Blood. I have been troubled with Scrofula for the past ten years, which so affected my eyes that I was completely blind for six months. I was recommended to try King of the Blood, which has proved a great blessing to me, as it has completely cured me, and I cheerfully recommend it to all troubled as I have been.
Yours truly,
MRS. S. WEATHERLOW, Sardinia, N. Y.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning; and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

NOTICE.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: FRED GREEN, who fished for Megler & Co., left Hungry Harbor, on the Washington Territory side of Columbia river, on Thursday, June 10th, 1880, about 5 P. M. with Thomas Dempsey as boat puller since which time neither they or their boat or net have been seen, and we feel sure they have been drowned. Fred Green was born in Sweden, was about 30 years of age, and has been steamboating on the Columbia river for five or six years—was last employed on the steamer Wide West. We desire to give his many friends this notice of his death.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.

The Population of Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 19.—[illegible] Superintendent Wright's [illegible] are nearly completed, and indicates the population of Chicago to be [illegible].

Execution in Texas.

EASTROP, Tex., June 18.—Samuel Sampson Howard was hanged to-day, for the murder of Alexander Farmer, in May, 1878. A large concourse of people witnessed the execution.

Respited.

GREENVILLE, June 18.—Three incendiaries who were to have been hanged to-day have been respited.

Population of Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The census returns show the population of Brooklyn to be 555,[illegible], an increase of 72,000 in five years.

Effect of the Indian War.

SHAKESPEARE, N. M., June 18.—Citizens of Silver City and vicinity are almost starving for want of provisions. Not one pound of flour, potatoes, bacon or staple necessities of life are to be obtained for love or money. Neither can checks or eastern exchange be converted into cash, being unattainable. Business is completely prostrated in consequence, both at Silver and Shakespeare. Victoria's raid is the cause of all this, yet Gen. Hatch telegraphed Gov. Wallace recently that he knew of no freight trains having been troubled by Indians.

Convention in the Open Air at Raleigh.

RALEIGH, June 19.—The democratic state convention yesterday was the largest ever held in North Carolina. Two thousand delegates were in attendance. No hall was large enough to hold them, and they met in capitol square in the open air. The meeting was called to order by S. A. Ashe, chairman of the state committee. Jno. Graham was made permanent president. Governor Jarvis was re-nominated over Fowle and Scales, by a small majority, on the first ballot, and it was made unanimous. On the first ballot for lieutenant governor, Judge Starr was thought to be nominated over James L. Robinson, the present incumbent, Thos. Holt and Kerr Craig; but there being confusion, another call was made, and Robinson's nomination was made unanimous. All other incumbents were re-nominated without serious opposition, except for auditor General W. P. Roberts was nominated. Delegates to Cincinnati are not instructed, but are favorable to Seymour; second choice, Bayard. The convention took no action about the two-thirds rule at Cincinnati. There are no Tilden men among the entire delegation. Electors at large, Gen. James M. Leach and Fabius H. Busbee.

Murder at Jack City.

LARAMIE CITY, June 19.—George Benton, just from North Park, says that Chauncey Bacon, a miner, was shot and mortally wounded on the 17th at Jack City by a Swede, whose name he did not learn.

A Fiendish Deed.

CINCINNATI, June 19.—At Jefferson, near Sidney, Ohio, on Thursday, David L. Shank, a young blacksmith, attacked two widows in their house and killed one, Mrs. Lane, aged 64 years; the weapon used being a fence rail. He was driven away before he had killed the other woman. He feigned insanity when arrested, but it is said that he was only drunk.

Floods in the Northwest.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Passengers coming in from Minnesota and Dakota represent the whole country literally under water, and the damage to crops and other property will be incalculable. The rain last week swelled the streams, and nothing like it has ever been before known.

Fire at Starkville, Mississippi.

Gen. Garfield at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, June 19.—Gen. Garfield arrived to-day. He was met at the depot by a large crowd of people and made a short speech. Congressmen Conger, Humphreys and Williams of Wisconsin, also spoke. In compliance with a telegraphic request from Gen. Garfield, Senator Cameron met him at the depot and accompanied him west.

Jeff Davis Testifies in the Dorsey [illegible]—He Remains Unreconstructed.

NEW ORLEANS, June 18.—Jefferson Davis, Jubal A. Early, and J. U. Paine testified in the case of the will of Sarah A. Dorsey, who left Davis her legatee, contested on the ground of undue influence, which Davis emphatically denied. Mrs. Dorsey, he said, believed that the confederacy still existed; that its truths were eternal and should prevail. He believed this, too, and if that was insanity, both he and Mrs. Dorsey were crazy.

Collision at New York.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The excursion steamers Grand Republic and Adelaide were in collision off Canal street this evening, and the latter was sunk. No lives were lost, both boats having just previously landed their passengers.

Congressional Nomination.

End of the Leadville Strike.

DENVER, Col., June 18.—A News Leadville special gives the result of the meeting of the miners union yesterday. The meeting was largely attended by members of the union. Gens. Cook and Jones and their staffs and a number of prominent mine owners were also present. After a full and free discussion, the miners' union adopted a series of resolutions agreeing to resume work at terms on which they were employed previous to the strike. Certain mine owners agreed to recognize the eight hour system in future, as heretofore, and gave pledges to use their influence to have that system generally adopted throughout the camp. It is understood, however, that the men were to go to work at the old prices whenever they could get it, and that no strike would be ordered or permitted against managers who insisted upon working ten hours. Such leaders of the strike as were known to have counseled and resorted to violence and intimidation would not be re-employed. A committee appointed by the meeting waited upon General Cook, and they joined in a dispatch to Governor Pitkin, requesting a continuance of martial law, at the discretion of General Cook. As the matter now stands, miners are to go to work at the old prices, the union not to be disbanded, however. Mine owners and managers make no concession, except that they will use their influence in favor of the general adoption of the eight hour system. Mooney and other leaders were guaranteed immunity from arrest if they return. If the miners go to work to-morrow, all the mines will resume with full force. A large number of mines are already working full forces, and confidence is generally restored.

DENVER, June 19.—Mooney was released this morning. Telegrams from Leadville state that all the militia are mustered out except one company. Everything is quiet.

An Abandoned Vessel.

NEW ORLEANS, June 19.—Captain Kenny, of the British steamship Devonia from Liverpool, reports that on June 15th he passed the British steamer Edmonton, about one hundred miles off Key West. The steamer was abandoned. Captain Kenny placed his chief engineer, chief officer, carpenter, and a number of seamen, on board, with orders to take the steamer to Key West. The Edmonton did not appear to be disabled.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Mexican Border.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—At a cabinet meeting this afternoon a telegram from Gen. Hatch requesting permission to follow Victoria's Indians across the Mexican border was referred to the state department with a view of obtaining the consent of the Mexican government. The military authorities here have been directed to prevent the departure of the expedition from southern Arizona to take possession of the state of Sonora, Mexico.

A Long Pending Case Settled.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—A patent has been issued and transmitted to-day to Surveyor General Wagner for delivery for the two tracts of land constituting a portion of rancho Agua Caliente confirmed to Mariano G. Vallejo. The survey as patented contains 1801 acres, situated in Sonoma county. A patent has also been issued in favor of [illegible], or his heirs and assignees, for the [illegible] acres reserved by the government in [illegible] as a light house site at Point Conception, Santa Barbara county, but which Secretary Schu[illegible] [illegible] was erroneously executed [illegible] patent issued in favor of [illegible] rancho Punta de la Concepcion, [illegible] which therefore the [illegible] [illegible] a [illegible] or proceedings of [illegible].

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

A Local Option Bill Adopted by the House of Commons.

LONDON, June 19.—In the house of commons to-day Sir Wilfrid Lawson's local option resolution, giving to the inhabitants of any district the right of determining whether licenses to public houses shall be rendered or not, and which has been rejected in several successive sessions, was adopted, 229 yeas to 203 nays. [illegible] Hartington voted against the motion, and Foster, Sir William Harcourt, Mr. Chamberlain and some other members of the government voted for it.

The English Grain Market.

LIVERPOOL, June 18.—[illegible] grain circular says that the grain trade remains very dull. There is almost an entire cessation in the demand at the principal markets, and a decline of sixpence to a shilling is generally reported upon a limited amount of business transacted. Cargoes off coast continue in fair request at steady prices.

French Affairs.

PARIS, June 17.—A number of senators and deputies met to-day by request of Premier De Freycinet, to discuss the amnesty question. De Freycinet said that the government thought it expedient to summon a meeting of the moderate members of the two chambers to ascertain their views in order that the government might know how to act in the matter. Leon Say said that he had so recently returned to Paris and that he had not had time to learn the feeling of the senate. Gambetta explained it was at his instance the meeting had convened. He urged the government to put an end to the irritating question by presenting a bill for the plenary amnesty. Senators replied that the government would not obtain the votes of the left center in the senate to such a measure. At a cabinet council this morning a majority declared in favor of amnesty.

A committee of the chamber of deputies on army administration, have withdrawn their bill and resolved to resume examination of a bill adopted by the senate, which was rejected by the committee on the 12th inst. Gen. Farre, minister of war, to-day asked the chamber to suspend discussion of the bill until he had introduced his own measure. The house assented.

PARIS, June 19.—Deputies of the republican left have decided by a vote of 45 to 11 to favor amnesty. Senators of the same party have taken similar action. L'Union replying to an article in the Figaro, acknowledges that royalists are collecting funds, but claims that the collections are only such as every political party requires, and denies the existence of any conspiracy.

The chamber of deputies was to-day engaged in a discussion of estimates of the ministry of foreign affairs.

The cabinet council to-day determined as a basis for the amnesty proposition that the amnesty will be plenary, except as regards crimes against common law previous to 1871.

De Freycinet, in reply to an interpellation upon the estimates, said that the Hartman affair had in no way affected the excellent relations between France and Russia; that the policy of the government on the Greek question would be one of prudence, and that the government had entered into negotiations with the semi-official agent of the Mexican republic for the restoration of diplomatic relations between the two countries. The whole of the estimates were then adopted.

Gambetta, at a meeting of senators and deputies to discuss the amnesty question, said that in the provinces as in Paris public opinion has accepted amnesty as necessary. Conservative and republican papers of Paris are almost all pronounced for amnesty. Republican organs in the provinces also unanimously favored it. Four thousand amnestied persons are now in Paris and their quietness had refuted the fears expressed regarding the maintenance of order. Why shrink from amnestying a few persons? The government could be sure of their 120 adherents in the chamber of deputies. In this state of things it would be incomprehensible for the senate to impede the measure.

The preamble of the amnesty bill says: "In the presence of the tranquility reigning in Paris, the recent triumph of legality at Lyons and the approaching national fete, plenary amnesty can be proclaimed without danger. Also the ministry appeals to your clemency, not to your justice. Amnesty is to be accorded to all persons convicted of political offenses or crimes in 1870 and 1871 and to political and press offenders from that time until the present date." The preamble was cheered. A motion for urgency protested by Premier De Freycinet was agreed to, as was also the premier's further proposition that the bill be referred immediately.

The Porte and Sultan Realize the Situation.

VIENNA, June 17.—The answer of the porte to the identical note is better than was anticipated, as it accepts the decision of the powers and places itself on the same basis with them. There is, however, a reservation that mediation should not interfere with the free decisions of the porte, but it has never expressed that the porte would submit before knowing the decision of the powers. The inference is that the action of the powers has not failed to produce some impression upon the sultan as to the seriousness of his position.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 17.—It is stated that the porte will not openly object to the decisions of the conference, but will not enforce them. Albanians on the Greek frontier are being urged to resist. Large supplies of arms and ammunition have been sent [illegible]. The financial difficulties are increasing. Notwithstanding the scarcity of money, constant additions are being made to the specie chest at the war office, supposed to be in anticipation of war with Greece. It is believed that Russia is secretly inspiring the sultan with the idea of resistance. There can be no hope of Turkey accepting the [illegible] while the influence of Osman Pasha and Said Pasha, who are simply [illegible], prevails.

LONDON, June 18.—A Berlin correspondent asserts that the main fact is that [illegible] Europe to carry out the [illegible].

VIENNA, June 18.—The Political Correspondence says that the Roumanian agent at [illegible] has been instructed to demand from the Bulgarian government a categorical explanation relative to the withdrawal of authorizing the naturalization of Bulgarians as Roumanians in Roumanian territory. In case explanation is unsatisfactory Roumania threatens a rupture of diplomatic relations.

A Harem on a Tour.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 19.—On the arrival in the Dardanelles of an Italian steamer having on board the harem of ex-Khedive Ismail Pasha, the sultan authorized the women to go to Chios or Lemnos; but the captain of the ship persisted that he had been ordered to Constantinople. The ship was allowed to [illegible] out of respect to the Italian flag, but the women will be transhipped [illegible] and conveyed to [illegible].

THE LATEST—TILDEN WITHDRAWS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CINCINNATI, June 19.—[illegible] Seymour's telegram declining to be a candidate. It is conceded by many now that his candidacy appears to be out of the question, and that he could have been nominated by acclamation. It is argued by friends of western candidates that the inevitable result of Seymour's withdrawal is to be the nomination of a western man. "What is the matter [illegible] Tilden?" is the absorbing question. The streets are full of rumors, as the newspapers have been for days, to the effect that Tilden has prepared a letter withdrawing the use of his name [illegible] placed in the keeping of several gentlemen, some of whom have denied its possession. [illegible] Hensley of this city, who is known to be a warm friend of Tilden, says that [illegible]. The latest rumor in this connection with this matter is that the letter is in the hands of W. C. Whitney, of the New York delegation. Mr. Whitney being a son-in-law of Judge Payne, the inference is that Tilden's strength is to be transferred to Payne; but Whitney's associates have denied that such a letter is in existence. Still the story is told with strong assurances of belief and has pretty thoroughly taken [illegible]. It is to be observed in this [illegible] that, though there is no equal [illegible] the candidates, there is not so much [illegible] as at Chicago [illegible] the lines will be more strictly drawn [illegible] the adherents of the several candidates [illegible] a result of probabilities. As matters are now [illegible] a calculation of the strength of candidates. There are active workers here in the interest of Tilden, Thurman, Field, Payne, Jewett, Randall, Bayard, Hancock, Hendricks and English. Mr. Groesbeck is mentioned as a possible contingent but he is not prominently presented. Abram S. Hewitt is mentioned as a candidate in [illegible] Tilden declines.

The national committee met to-day and decided to make the preliminary organization at noon on Monday. It has been arranged to give [illegible] seats for spectators, 600 to the local committee, and 600 for ladies to the local committee.

Susan B. Anthony, Matilda Joslyn Gage and [illegible] D. Blake, of New York; S. A. Spencer, of Washington, D. C.; Elizabeth A. Merriwether, of Tennessee, and others of the women's suffrage association, are here to present their claims for the ballot to the democratic party. They have established headquarters in one of the rooms at Music Hall.

The latest rumor with regard to the Tilden letter of withdrawal is that it is in the possession of [illegible], who is on his way to Cincinnati. Whatever may be the fact, the conclusion is quite general that such a letter is in existence.

The Convention Hall.

The national committee to-day visited Music Hall and reviewed the arrangements for seating delegates, press representatives and others. The arrangements are much better than at Chicago. The western associated press and the New York associated press will have tables to the left of the president on the platform. So far there is no complaint about the plans for issuing the tickets to spectators, and apparently there are no movements to pack the hall with claquers.

Organization of State Delegations—How Sunday was Spent by the Delegates.

CINCINNATI, June 20.—Delegates not immediately engaged in the business of the convention have visited attractive suburbs and swarmed over the hill top resorts.

Last night a most delightful reception was given the Ohio delegation by residents of Clifton. Speeches were made by Theodore Cook, G. H. Pendleton, Wm. S. Groesbeck, John McSweeny, Jos. E. Stevenson and Richard Smith.

To-day the Ohio delegation held two meetings at both of which great enthusiasm was manifested for Thurman, and it was resolved to stand firm. It is stated that Jewett's candidacy was not to be considered so long as Thurman was in the field. Much bitterness was expressed toward the supporters of Payne. It was decided that [illegible] should make the nominating speech and John McSweeny should second the nomination.

To-night the New York delegation held a meeting at the Grand Hotel and organized by choosing Daniel Manning, chairman, and S. E. Holliday, secretary.

Tilden Interviewed by Pacific Coast Delegates—He Will Go Before the Convention.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Evening Mail says: A committee of Oregon, Nevada and California delegates to Cincinnati called on Tilden Thursday. He received the delegation courteously, but with none of last campaign's love. They explained their position to him, and why the people had ceased to consider him out of the race, and why other names were brought forward. Col. Henry, who was one of the delegation, said, last evening to a reporter: "The old gentleman listened to all we had to say, and said that, in view of the fact that he had been assured of a majority vote in the convention he did not intend to withdraw his name from the convention. When asked to name the gentleman he would support in event of his defeat in the convention, Tilden refused to say. He would not promise, however, to support Field."

Seymour Emphatically Declines.

CINCINNATI, June 19.—The Enquirer this morning says that its editor has received a personal dispatch from Horatio Seymour, and it violates no confidence in printing the following extract: "I cannot accept the nomination, if it is made, under any circumstances. I am not able to do the duties of any office. I hope my name will not be presented at Cincinnati in any way. I have never said I would accept the nomination, nor have I knowingly intimated that I would. I rely upon you to set me right with the delegates."

Delegates Open to Conviction.

CHICAGO, June 19.—The Tribune's interview with democratic delegates to Cincinnati who are now in town, indicates that almost the entire body of them are uninstructed and open to conviction after arrival there, with a partiality for [illegible]. Mr. Irish, of the Iowa delegation, said to a Burlington reporter, that a majority of the Iowa delegation would support Tilden.

Tilden has not Withdrawn.

CHICAGO, June 19.—From a source which is perfectly trustworthy and free to speak from positive knowledge, it is learned that stories of Tilden's withdrawal are absolutely false. He expects more than half the votes of the convention on the first ballot, and will either get the nomination or dictate the nominee.

The Thurman Programme.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 19.—Senator Thurman arrived here to-day from Washington and held a consultation with a number of delegates to the Cincinnati convention and personal friends as to the management of the contest. The consultation was informal and besides agreeing to stick to Thurman as long as there was a chance of his nomination and arranging business details, nothing was done.

"The Biggest Boom is for Field."

NEW YORK, June 19.—A Cincinnati special to the Evening Post says: The man here who appears to come nearest to having an effectual following is Field. The Tilden men are [illegible] that the opposition to them will in the end concentrate on the [illegible] coast candidate. [illegible] Commercial special says: "[illegible] the biggest boom here is for Field."

TILDEN WITHDRAWS.

CINCINNATI, June 21—2:15 A. M.—The New York delegation held a meeting to-night and [illegible] received a letter from Samuel J. Tilden declining the nomination and [illegible]. The letter, which is long, reviews his course [illegible], and much of it is devoted to [illegible] Hayes [illegible].

A Brush on the Sand Lot—A Female Greenbacker Gives Mr. Wellock "One on the Snoot."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—At the sand lot to-day there were two meetings held, one by the greenback and the other by the democratic wing of the W. P. C. The greenbackers came first on the scene and [illegible] the rostrum, raising the American flag. Shortly after William Wellock, of the democratic wing, made his appearance and attempted to mount the platform. This attempt was resisted, and after some parley one of the female greenbackers let out with her left, giving William "one for his nob," which stretched him on his native soil. He retired in disorder amid howls of contending factions, which had meanwhile begun to assemble in groups, and finally [illegible] a stand in a distant corner of the sand lot, where he assembled his democratic followers. Speaking was then carried on from both rostrums. The crowd was about equally divided during the speaking. Knots of men assembled, angrily discussing the questions which engaged their attention, but a squad of police circulated about and broke up every tendency to violence.

Boat Race at Providence.

PROVIDENCE, June 17.—A professional race of three miles to-day was won by Ross; Plaisted second, Boyd third. Hanlan was leading at [illegible] the signal. Hanlan rushed to the front and was followed by Boyd and Kelley. After a time Ross pushed ahead of Boyd and they kept steadily on the third position. Finally Ross passed the Englishman and sped for Hanlan, passing him before reaching the turning point, three or four lengths, with Riley second and Hanlan third. It afterward seemed to have failed with Hanlan in turning, and Boyd fared no better, for he was in contact with his buoy and was detained nearly half a minute. As the boats turned the wind freshened perceptibly. Ross steered toward the eastern shore with [illegible] and the champion third. Ross maintained his lead and about half a mile from the [illegible] Hanlan was observed to cease rowing and rest on his oars. When asked what was the matter from the press boat he placed his hand on his breast as though experiencing pain. At this time Ross was [illegible] in advance with Riley second. Memorial Services at New York.

NEW YORK, June 19.—A meeting of the society of Associated Pioneers of the Territorial Days of California was held at the Sturtevant House this afternoon, to take action in regard to the death of Gen. John A. Sutter, president of the society. The flag of the society hung at half-mast over the hotel all day, and one of the parlors was well filled with old pioneers. Gen. H. G. Gibson, acting president of the association, occupied the chair, and made an appropriate address, illustrating the life and character of the deceased. Other addresses were made by Messrs. [illegible] Pierson and [illegible]. [illegible] read a poem composed for the occasion. A committee consisting of Gen. [illegible] was appointed to draft resolutions [illegible] the sorrow felt by the members at the death of its venerable president, which were read and adopted. It was then resolved that the society should attend the funeral of their father, which will take place at his late home in Lititz, Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, on Tuesday afternoon, after which the meeting adjourned. Mr. [illegible], a lawyer of Wellington, Kansas, and several other gentlemen, from the same locality, members of an organization known as the Washington Colony, have recently arrived in this city. They inform your correspondent that there are several hundred people, members of this colony, the majority of whom will arrive here and [illegible] the country east of the mountains by the latter part of the present month. A portion of the party including the president, are coming overland with teams and are probably by this time in the Spokan country. It is not yet determined what portion of the territory the colony will select for a location, but probably some portion east of the mountains.

The rush to the Skagit mines has fallen off somewhat during the past two or three weeks. The water is now very high on the several creeks on which gold has been discovered, and it is asserted that no mining to speak of can be done until late in August. Meanwhile a great many discouraging reports have been put in circulation which may or may not be well founded. One old miner of many years' experience in the gold mines of this coast dropped into our office yesterday. He had just returned from the diggings for the purpose of purchasing supplies for one of the companies on Canon creek, with which he was a member. "Some of [illegible]," he said, "are getting the dumps badly, and there are as many coming out of the country at present as going in. About 2500 claims have been located in companies on the several creeks. The water is so high that nothing but prospecting work can be done now. In my opinion you have seen the biggest rush you will see until the boys get to taking out gold in well paying quantities." In answer to a question as to whether he thought they would ever do this, he replied: "Well, [illegible], nobody knows. The country has all the appearance of a [illegible] auriferous region, but as to whether that is [illegible] 'you can't sometimes most always tell,' as Bret Harte used to say, at least until you get at it. The country is yet entirely undeveloped. It has not yet been fairly prospected. However, [illegible] rich strikes have been made." Again, when asked if he did not consider the recent desertion of so many miners from the diggings an unfavorable omen, he [illegible], "Why, not at all. It has been so in all mines. ANNUAL MEETING

Second Day!

Last evening owing to the illness of Rev. C. [illegible], who was to preach the association sermon, [illegible] was obliged to ask to be excused pro tem, and Rev. P. S. Knight preached on the words of Christ, "Lovest thou me?" This morning a letter was read from the church at [illegible], asking to be received into connection with this body, and it was so done, making the ninth new church received during the session.

Rev. A. W. Bower then opened the subject of amusements. He had found it no amusing subject, [illegible] that having written an essay about it he had become so disgusted with it that he had torn it [illegible] and proposed to open the subject with some extempore remarks. He stated that all persons needed some amusements or diversions, even the most steady, but that they varied with the temperament and circumstances. Originally [illegible] amusements innocent, are just as [illegible] brought many of them down that they had fallen and become sinful. He could lay down no hard rule for all, but felt that we must keep sinful amusements out of the church and that Christians must deny themselves, take up their cross and follow Christ. The question is between innocent and questionable amusements—in so in which some churches see no harm and some do not. On account of a difference of [illegible] education and spiritual growth, he would not [illegible] indifference of [illegible] to wrong motives. Innocent amusements he thought are carried to an extreme when they turn the Christian life aside from its true work;—that young and feeble Christians are in more danger of being turned aside by such amusements than older and stronger ones, [illegible] that we must meet the subject not by [illegible] church amusements or by church discipline, but by thorough education, and that we want [illegible] amusements not to consume our strength [illegible] character. A variety of discussion followed the essay, some being troubled with dancing, card playing and Sabbath breaking, others because of different early education of some Christians, especially foreigners—some thought that each person must decide whether any amusement would help to devotional thought, and that all that we do must be for God's glory, and that we should do nothing on which we cannot ask God's blessing. Another that people of different temperaments must have charity for each other and deny self for the sake of others. Another that [illegible] the key note when he said that every one that hath this hope in him should purify himself even as Christ was pure, and one minister related how he once and only once had ever been to a dance, and that he had talked religion all the time and the result was a revival!

Rev. E. P. Baker read an essay on Foreign Missions in which he stated that there had been great progress during this century from a closed [illegible] an open field now in heathen lands, from sending out our laborers as preachers to the heathen, to sending them as educators of native preachers, and in many lands from native heathen to native preachers. And that while there is not now so much enthusiasm on the subject there is more solid steady work, so that he thought the conversion of the world not so improbable as it seemed to some. Others recommended the Woman's Board of Missions, referred to the work of the Japanese in Japan, who were educated at Forest Grove, and the better health of native workers over Americans in many heathen lands and stated that Rev. D. C. Green of Japan would probably soon visit our churches to interest us more in this branch of Christian work.

In the afternoon Dr. Atkinson read an essay on the word day as used in the first chapter of Genesis, in which he stated that the Hebrew root of the word signified heat, after which it came to mean heat and light in contrast with darkness; then the whole period of darkness and light, and that in this chapter it meant such a long period—an epoch. A number of questions were asked him on various points, some agreeing with him and some, while agreeing that the word often means an epoch, could not admit it in this passage. He was asked to prepare the essay for publication.

The reports of the churches, which were left unfinished yesterday, were taken up and finished. A summary shows that there are now one thousand and forty one members connected with the body, two hundred and thirty-four of whom have been added during the year. There have been fifty-nine dismissals, fifty one adult and thirty-four infant baptisms. Twelve hundred and sixty Sabbath school scholars were reported, with a thousand and ninety average attendance; three hundred and fifteen average attendance at prayer meetings, and sixteen hundred and thirty on public worship. About seventeen hundred and fifty dollars have been contributed for benevolent objects and fourteen thousand for home work. In regard to the last two items, however, the reports were very incomplete.

The churches at Washougal, Ahtanum and Mt. Pleasant are taking steps and gathering material for building edifices. The one at White Salmon has one under way. Those at Colfax, East Portland and Port Gamble have finished and dedicated theirs, built at an expense of $7500. That at Yakima City has procured an organ and the one at Colfax a bell. That at The Dalles has completed its parsonage, and the one at Salem has bought a [illegible] church which they propose to add to the old building for a vestry.

An uncle of Hager, the young man lately murdered near Waitsburg, has written that he will visit that locality shortly, take charge of the financial affairs of deceased, and make vigorous search for the perpetrator of the atrocious deed.

A handsome monument has been erected over the grave of the late Dr. Marsh, president of Pacific University. It is of Italian marble, both base and shaft, the whole being eight feet high and suitably inscribed. It was fashioned under the direction of the widow of the lamented founder of Pacific University and is a fitting testimonial to his great and good deeds.

A. J. Thomas and wife, alleged murderers of Bromfield and Amanda [illegible], have been remanded to jail until the December term of court. A territorial statute providing that no one shall be put on trial on indictment for murder until thirty days after his arrest without his consent in open court left Judge Wingard no alternative but to postpone the trial. The prisoners were returned to Walla Walla and placed in jail, and will hereafter be confined in separate cells.
